1. (a) Worker shall be classified as - Classification of worker.
- (i) permanent;
 - (ii) probationer;
 - (iii) badly;
 - (iv) temporary;
 - (v) apprentice;
 - (vi) contract worker.
- (b) A “permanent worker” is a worker who has been engaged on work of permanent nature likely to last more than nine months and has satisfactorily completed a probationary period of three months in the same or another occupation in the industrial or commercial establishment, including breaks due to sickness, accident, leave, lock-out, strike (not being an illegal strike) or involuntary closure of the establishment and includes a badli who has been employed for a continuous period of ninety days or for one hundred and eighty-three days during any period of twelve consecutive months.

- (c) A “probationer” is a worker who is provisionally employed to fill a permanent vacancy in a post and has not completed three months service therein. If a permanent employee is employed as a probationer in a higher post he may, at any time during the probationary period of three months, be reverted to his old permanent post.
- (d) A “badli” is a worker who is appointed in the post of a permanent worker or probationer, who is temporarily absent.
- (e) A “temporary worker” is a worker who has been engaged for work which is of an essentially temporary nature likely to be finished within a period not exceeding nine months.
- (f) An “apprentice” is a person who is an apprentice within the meaning of the Apprenticeship Ordinance, 1962(LVI of 1962).
- (g) A “contract worker” means a worker who works on contract basis for a specific period mentioned in the contract, in any establishment but does not include the third party employment.

2. (1) Every worker employed in an industrial establishment or commercial establishment shall be given a permanent card unless he is a probationer, a badli, a temporary worker, an apprentice or a contract worker. Cards.

(2) Every permanent worker shall be provided with a departmental ticket, showing his number, and shall on being required to do so, produce it to any person authorized by the employer in this regard or an Inspector appointed by Government.

(3) Every badli shall be provided with a badli card, on which shall be entered the days on which he has worked in the establishment, and which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.

(4) Every temporary worker shall be provided with a temporary ticket which he shall surrender on his discharge.

(5) Every apprentice shall be provided with an apprentice card, which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.

(6) Every contract worker shall be provided with a card giving reference to his contract which he shall surrender on termination of the contract.

3. (1) Every worker, at the time of his appointment, shall be given an appointment letter showing expressly, the terms and conditions of his employment including wages. Terms and conditions of service to be given in writing.

(2) Every worker upon his transfer or promotion shall be provided with an order in writing, showing the terms and conditions of his service including wages.

4. The periods and hours of work for all classes of workers in each shift shall be exhibited in Urdu, Sindhi and English languages in the industrial establishment or commercial establishment on notice boards maintained at or near the main entrance of the establishment and at the time-keeper's office, if any.

Publication of working time.

5. Notices specifying -

Publication of holidays and pay days.

(a) the days observed by the industrial establishment or commercial establishment as holidays; and

(b) pay days shall be posted on the said notice boards.

6. Notices specifying the rates of wages payable to all classes of worker and for all classes of work shall be displayed on the said notice boards.

Publication of wage rates.

7. (1) More than one shift may be worked in a department or any section of a department of the industrial establishment or commercial establishment at the discretion of the employer.

Shift working.

(2) If more than one shift works, the worker shall be liable to be transferred from one shift to another. No shift working shall be discontinued without one month's notice being given prior to such discontinuance; provided that no such notice shall be necessary, if, as a result of the discontinuance of the shift, no permanent worker is discharged.

(3) If as a result of discontinuance of shift working, any permanent worker is to be discharged, he shall be discharged having regard to the length of his service in the establishment, the one with the shortest term of service being discharged first. If shift working is restarted, a week's notice thereof shall be given by posting notice at the main entrance of the establishment and the time-keeper's office, if any, and the workers, discharged as a result of the discontinuance of the shift, shall, if they present themselves at the time of the restarting of the shift, have preference in being re-employed, having regard to the length of their previous service under the establishment, those with the longest term of service being re-employed first.

8. All workers shall be at work at the establishment at the time fixed and notified under Standing Order 5 and the workers attending late shall be liable to the deduction provided for in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Act IV of 1936).

Attendance and late coming.

9. (1) Holidays and leave with pay shall be allowed as hereinafter specified:-

Leave.

(a) annual holidays, festival holidays, casual leave, sick, as provided for in Chapter-IV-A of the Factories Act, 1934 (Act No.XXV of 1934) and maternity leaves as defined in Maternity Benefit Ordinance,1958;

(b) other holidays in accordance with the law, contract, custom and usage.

(2) Every worker shall be allowed holidays with pay on all days declared by Government or Federal Government to be festival holidays.

(3) A worker, who desires to obtain leave of absence shall apply to the employer, who shall issue orders on the application within a week of its submission or two days prior to the commencement of the leave applied for, whichever is earlier; provided that if the leave applied for is to commence on the date of the application or within three days thereof, the order shall be given on the same day.

(4) If the leave under clause (2) asked for is granted, a leave pass shall be issued to the worker and if the leave is refused or postponed, the fact of such refusal or postponement and the reasons therefor shall be recorded in writing in a register to be maintained for the purpose, and if the worker so desires, a copy of the entry in the register shall be supplied to him.

(5) If the worker after proceeding on leave desires an extension thereof, he shall apply to the employer who shall send a written reply either granting or refusing extension of leave to the worker if his address is available and if such reply is likely to reach him before the expiry of the leave originally granted to him.

10. (1) Any wages due to the worker but not paid on the usual pay day on account of their being unclaimed, shall be paid by the employer on an unclaimed wages pay day in each week, which shall be notified on the notice boards as aforesaid.

Payment of wages.

(2) All workers shall be paid wages on a working day before the expiry of the 7th or 10th day after the last day of the wage period, in respect of which the wages are payable if the total number of workers employed in the establishment is one thousand or less or exceeds one thousand, respectively.

(3) Where in a commercial establishment, a worker is required to work more than nine hours in any day or for more than forty-eight hours in any week, he shall be paid, for extra time, the wage twice the normal rate of wage admissible to him.

11. (1) In every industrial and commercial establishment, in which fifty or more workers are employed, there shall be introduced from such date as may be specified by Government, by notification in the official Gazette, a group incentive scheme to provide incentive for greater production to groups of worker employed in the factory.

Group incentive scheme.

(2) The scheme shall provide the manner in which the performance of different groups of workers, whether in the same section, shop, department or shift or in different sections, shops, departments or shifts, shall be evaluated.

(3) The incentive shall be in the form of additional wages or additional leave with wages or in both such forms to the members of the group of workers whose production exceeds that of the other groups or the average of all the groups. The incentive shall be according to such scales as may be prescribed and shall be related to the extent of the excess production achieved by the group with the best performance.

12. (1) In every industrial establishment and commercial establishment, in which twenty or more workers are employed, the employer shall have all the permanent workers employed by him insured against natural death and disability and death and injury arising out of contingencies not covered by the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (Act No.VIII of 1923) or the Provincial Employees' Social Security Ordinance, 1965 (W.P.Ord.No.X of 1965).

Compulsory Group Insurance.

(2) The employer shall in all cases be responsible for the payment of the amount of premium and for all administrative arrangements whether carried out by himself or through an insurance company.

(3) The amount for which each worker shall be insured shall not be less than the amount of compensation specified in Schedule IV to the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (Act No.VIII of 1923).

(4) Where the employer fails to have a permanent worker employed by him insured in the manner laid down in clauses (1), (2) and (3) and such worker suffers death or injury arising out of contingencies mentioned in clause (1), the employer shall pay, in the case of death, to the heirs of such worker, or in the case of injury, to the worker, such sum of money as would have been payable by the insurance company had such worker been insured.

(5) All claims of a worker or his heirs for recovery of money under clause (4) shall be settled in the same manner as is provided for the determination and recovery of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (Act No.VIII of 1923).

13. (1) Every employer making profit in any year shall pay for that year within three months of the closing of that year to the workers who have been in his employment in that year for a continuous period of not less than ninety days a bonus in addition to the wages payable to such workers.

Payment of bonus.

(2) The amount of the bonus payable shall -

- (a) if the amount of the profit is not less than the aggregate of one month's wages of the worker employed, be not less than the amount of such aggregate, subject to the maximum of thirty percent of such profit;

Illustration-1.- If the profit is Rs.1,20,000.00 and the aggregate of one month's wages of the worker is Rs.30,000.00, the amount of bonus, payable shall be not less than the aggregate of one month's wages, that is to say, Rs.30,000.00.

Illustration-2.- If the profit is Rs.30,000.00 and the aggregate of one month's wages of the worker is also Rs.30,000.00, the amount of bonus payable shall be not less than thirty percent of the profit, that is to say, Rs.9,000.00; and

- (b) if the amount of the profit is less than the aggregate referred to in paragraph (a), be not less than fifteen percent of such profit.

(3) The bonus payable to a worker entitled thereto under clause (1) shall bear to his monthly wages the same proportion as the total bonus payable by the employer bears to the aggregate of the wages referred to in paragraph (a) of clause (2) and shall be paid either in cash or in (N.I.T.) Units of equivalent value at the option of such worker.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the right of any worker to receive any bonus other than that payable under clause (1) to which he may be entitled in accordance with the terms of his employment or any usage or any settlement or an award of a Labour Court established under the Sindh Industrial Relations Act, 2013 (Sindh Act No.XVI of 2013).

Explanation.- For the purpose of this section -

- (a) "Units" mean the National Investment Trust Units as referred to in the National Investment (Unit) Trust Ordinance, 1965(VII of 1965);
- (b) "profits" in relation to a company, means such of the net profits as are attributable to its business, trade, undertaking or other operations in Pakistan; and
- (c) "wages" does not, for the purpose of calculating the bonus payable to a person under clause (1), include the bonus referred to in clause (x) of section 2 of the Payment of Wages Act, 2015.

14. (1) The employer may, at any time, in the event of fire, catastrophe, break-down of machinery or stoppage of power supply, epidemics, civil commotion or other cause beyond his control, stop any section or sections of the establishment, wholly or partially for any period or periods without notice.

(2) In the event of such stoppage during working hours, the workers affected shall be notified by notices put up on the notice board in the departments concerned or in the office of the employer, as soon as practicable, when work will be resumed and whether they are to remain or leave their place of work. The workers shall not ordinarily be required to remain for more than two hours after the commencement of the stoppage. If the period of detention does not exceed one hour, the workers so detained shall not be paid for the period of detention. If the period of detention exceeds one hour, the workers so detained shall be entitled to receive wages for the whole of the time during which they are detained as a result of the stoppage. In the case of piece-rate workers, the average daily earnings for the previous month shall be taken to be the daily wage. Wherever practicable, reasonable notice shall be given of resumption of normal work.

(3) In cases where workers are laid-off on account of failure of plant, a temporary curtailment of production or any stoppage of work for reasons mentioned in clause (1), they shall be paid by the employer an amount equal to one-half of their daily wages during the first fourteen days of lay-off as compensation. When, however, the workers have to be laid-off for an indefinite period beyond the above-mentioned fourteen days, their services may be terminated after giving them due notice or pay in lieu thereof.

(4) The employer may, in the event of a strike affecting either wholly or partially any section or department of the establishment, close down, either wholly or partially, such section or department and any other section or department affected by such closing down. The fact of such closure shall be notified by notices put up on the notice board in the section or department concerned and in the time-keeper's office, if any, as soon as practicable. The worker concerned shall also be notified by a general notice, prior to resumptions of work, as to when work will be resumed.

15. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Standing Order 15, no employer shall terminate the employment of more than fifty percent of the workers or close down the whole of the establishment without prior permission of the Government in this behalf, except in the event of fire, catastrophe, stoppage of power supply, epidemics or civil commotion:

Closure of establishment.

(2) If the application for permission to close down is not decided within fifteen days of its submission then the same shall be deemed to have been granted. Appeal against decision shall be preferred before the Labour Court within thirty days of the order.

Explanation.- 'Close down' in this clause includes lay-off of worker beyond fourteen days where such lay-off results in closure of an establishment but does not include lock-out declared, commenced or continued in accordance with the provisions of the Sindh Industrial Relations Act, 2013.

16. (1) For terminating employment of a permanent worker, for any reason other than misconduct, one month's notice shall be given either by the employer or the worker. One month's wages calculated on the basis of average wages earned by the worker during the last three months shall be paid in lieu of notice.

Termination of employment.

(2) No temporary worker, whether monthly-rated, weekly-rated, daily-rated or piece-rated, and no probationer, badli or contract worker shall be entitled to any notice, if his services are terminated by the employer, nor shall any such worker be required to give any notice or pay any wages in lieu thereof to the employer if he leaves employment of his own accord.

(3) The services of a worker shall not be terminated, nor shall a worker be removed, retrenched, discharged or dismissed from service, except by an order in writing which, shall explicitly state the reason for the action taken. In case a worker is aggrieved by the termination of his services or removal, retrenchment, discharge or dismissal, he may take action in accordance with the provisions of section 37 of the Sindh Industrial Relations Act, 2013 (Sindh Act No.XVI of 2013) and thereupon the provisions of the said section shall apply as they apply to the redress of an individual grievance.

(4) Where the services of any worker are terminated, the wages earned by him and other dues, including payment for un-availed leaves as defined in clause (1) of Standing Order 10 shall be paid before the expiry of the second working day from the day on which his services are terminated.

(5) The services of a permanent or temporary worker shall not be terminated on the ground of misconduct otherwise than in the manner prescribed in Standing Order 21.

(6) Where a worker resigns from service or his services are terminated by the employer, for any reason other than misconduct, he shall, in addition to any other benefits to which he may be entitled under this Act or in accordance with the terms of his employment or any custom, usage or any settlement or an award of a Labour Court under the Sindh Industrial Relations Act, 2013 (Sindh Act No.XVI of 2013) be paid gratuity equivalent to one month's wages, calculated on the basis of the wages admissible to him if he is a fixed-rated worker or the highest pay drawn by him during the last twelve months if he is a piece-rated worker, for every completed year of service or any part thereof, in excess of six months:

Provided that a seasonal worker shall also be entitled to gratuity equal to one month wages for each season.

Provided further that where the employer has established a provident fund to which the worker is a contributor and the contribution of the employer to the provident fund, shall not be less than the contribution made by the worker, no such gratuity shall be payable for the period during which such provident fund has been in existence:

Provided also that amount paid to the worker under provident fund shall not be less than the amount of gratuity admissible to such worker under this Act.

(7) A worker shall be entitled to receive the amount standing to his credit in the provident fund, including the contributions of the employer to such fund, even if he resigns or is dismissed from service.

(8) Where a worker dies while in service of the employer, his dependent shall be paid gratuity in accordance with the provision of clause (6):

Provided that no payment of gratuity in such case shall be made otherwise than by a deposit with the Commissioner, who shall proceed with the allocation of the deposit to the dependent of the deceased in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (Act No.VIII of 1923).

(9) If the employer fails to deposit the amount of the gratuity under clause (8) the dependent of the deceased may make an application to the Commissioner for the recovery of the amount thereof.

Explanation. "Commissioner" and "dependent" in this clause shall have the same meanings as are respectively assigned to them in Workmen Compensation Act, 1923 (Act No.VIII of 1923).

(10) If a worker is not allowed to work or mark his attendance by his employer in any manner, the worker may bring the same into the notice of the area Inspector in writing within ten days of the incidence and in such case the employer shall be precluded to initiate any action against the worker.

17. Every permanent worker shall be entitled to a service certificate at the time of his dismissal, discharge, retrenchment, retirement or cessation of relationship for any reason.

Certificate of termination of service.

18. Where any worker is to be retrenched and he belongs to a particular category of workers, the employer shall retrench the worker, who is the last person employed in that category.

Procedure for retrenchment.

19. Where any number of worker are retrenched and the employer proposes to take into his employment any person within a period of one year from the date of such retrenchment, he shall give an opportunity to the retrenched workers belonging to the category concerned, by sending a notice by registered post to their last known addresses to offer themselves for re-employment, and they shall have preference over other persons, each having priority according to the length of his service under the employer:

Re-employment of retrenched worker.

Provided that in the case of a seasonal factory within the meaning of section 4 of the Factories Act, 1934 (Act No.XXV of 1934), a worker who was retrenched in one season and reports for duty within ten days of the resumption of work in the factory in the immediately following season shall be given preference for employment by the employer:

Provided further that in the case of such a seasonal factory, as defined in the Factories Act, 1934 (Act No.XXV of 1934), the employer may by sending notice by registered post to the last known address of a worker who was retrenched in one season require him to report on a day specified in the notice, not being earlier than ten days before resumption of work in such factory, and if such worker so reports he shall be given preference for employment and paid full wages from the day he reports.

20. Where any worker is retrenched or discharged by a contractor or any employer engaged in the construction industry due to completion, cessation or discontinuance of work, he shall be given preference for employment in any other similar work undertaken by the contractor or employer within a period of one year from the date of such retrenchment or discharge:

Special provision for construction workers.

Provided that where a worker is re-employed within one month of his retrenchment or discharge, he shall be deemed to have been in continuous service of the contractor or employer notwithstanding the interruption caused by his retrenchment or discharge but no wages shall be paid to him for the period of interruption.

21. (1) A worker may be reprimanded or fined in the manner prescribed under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Act No.IV of 1936), up to five percent of the wages payable to him in a month, for any of the following acts or omissions, namely:-

Punishments.

- (i) in case where the Payment of Wages Act is applicable, the list of acts and omissions for which fine may be levied shall be same as approved by the Chief Inspector of Factories or any other officer concerned;

- (ii) in other cases, the following shall be the list of acts and omissions-

(4) No order of dismissal shall be made unless the worker concerned is informed in writing of the alleged misconduct within one month of the date of such misconduct or of the date on which the alleged misconduct comes to the notice of the employer and is given an opportunity to explain the circumstances alleged against him. The approval of the employer shall be required in every case of dismissal and the employer shall institute independent inquiry before dealing with charges against a worker:

Provided that the worker proceeded against may, if he so desires for his assistance in the enquiry, nominate any worker employed in that establishment and the employer shall allow the worker so nominated to be present in the enquiry to assist the worker proceeded against and shall not deduct his wages if the enquiry is held during his duty hours.

(5) Where, for the purposes of conducting an inquiry into the alleged misconduct of a worker, if the employer considers it necessary, he may suspend the worker concerned for a period not exceeding one week at a time, however, so that the total period of such suspension shall not exceed four weeks except where the matter is pending before an Arbitrator, a Labour Court, Tribunal, Commissioner, Authority or Conciliator for the grant of permission under section 61 of the Sindh Industrial Relations Act, 2013. The order of suspension shall be in writing and may take effect immediately on delivery to the worker. During the period of suspension, the worker concerned shall be paid by the employer the same wages as he would have received if he had not been suspended.

22. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law, for the time being in force, including those of the Sindh Rented Premises Ordinance, 1979, a worker occupying residential accommodation provided by his employer, who has resigned or retired, or has been retrenched, discharged or dismissed, or whose services have been terminated, shall vacate such accommodation within a period of two months from the date of his retrenchment, discharge, dismissal or termination of services, as the case may be; provided that in case of reinstatement of the worker, the employer shall be bound to provide him with similar residential accommodation from the date of such reinstatement or pay him per mensem an allowance in lieu thereof at the rate of three times the wages of the last full working day.

Eviction from residential accommodation.

(2) If a worker, who has been retrenched, discharged or dismissed, or whose services have been terminated, fails to vacate any residential premises provided by the employer, within the period specified in clause (1), the employer may lodge a complaint with a Magistrate of the First Class having jurisdiction in the area where such residential accommodation is located.

(3) The Magistrate on hearing the parties, may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, summarily decide the case and may pass an order of eviction, giving the worker a reasonable time to vacate the premises.

(4) Where a Magistrate passes an order for the eviction of a worker, he may also pass an order directing a police officer to evict such worker and any other person occupying through such worker the residential accommodation in respect of which the order of eviction is made, if the worker or such other person fails to vacate the accommodation within the time allowed under clause (3).

(5) A police officer acting under an order of the Magistrate under clause (4), shall notify the occupants of the premises in question the contents of the Magistrate's order and his intention to enter on such premises, and shall allow at least two hours' time to the occupants to vacate the premises and shall give all reasonable facilities to the children and female occupants, if any, to withdraw therefrom before applying any force for taking over the possession of such premises.

(6) Where a worker, occupying residential accommodation provided to him by the employer dies, the procedure prescribed in this Standing Order shall mutatis mutandis and so far as applicable, apply for evicting any person, who was occupying the premises through such worker, and after his death continues to remain in occupation thereof.

23. The employer of the industrial and commercial establishment shall personally be held responsible for the proper and faithful observance of the Standing Orders. Liability of employer.
