CHAPTER-V

GENERAL PROVISIONS

30. Retirement

An employee of the University shall retire from service:

i. on such date, after he has completed twenty-five years of service qualifying for pension or other retirement benefits, as the competent authority may direct. Provided that no employee shall be retired unless he has been informed in writing of the grounds of action proposed to be taken against him and has been given reasonable opportunity of showing cause against that action; or

ii. where no direction is given under clause (i), on the completion of sixty years of his age.

31. Opportunity of show cause

Except as otherwise provided, no officer, teacher, or other employee of the University holding a permanent post shall be reduced in rank or removed or compulsorily retired from service, unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken against him.

32. Appeal to and review by the Board

(1) Where an order is passed punishing an employee (except the Vice Chancellor) of the University or altering or interpreting to his disadvantage the prescribed terms or conditions of his service, he shall, where the order passed by the Vice Chancellor or any other officer or teacher of the University, have the right to appeal to the Board against the order and where the order is made by the Board, have the right to apply to the Board for review.

(2) The appeal or application for review shall be submitted to the Vice Chancellor who shall lay it before the Board with his views and record of the case.

(3) No order in appeal or review shall be made unless the appellant or the applicant, as the case may be, has been given an opportunity of being heard.

33. Fund

(1) The University shall constitute for the benefit of its employees, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, schemes, such as pension, insurance, gratuity, provident fund and benevolent fund, as it may deem fit.

34. Term of office of members of Authorities

When a member of a newly constituted Authority is appointed or nominated, his term of office, as fixed under this Act, shall commence from such date as may be prescribed.

35. Filling of casual vacancies in Authorities

(1) Any casual vacancy among the appointed or nominated members of any Authority shall be filled, as soon as conveniently may be, by the body who appointed or nominated the member whose place has become vacant, and the person appointed or nominated to the vacancy shall be a member of such

Authority for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he/she fills would have been a member:

Provided that, where a vacancy in the membership of an Authority, other than the Board, cannot be filled out for the reason that the member was ex-officio; and the office has ceased to exist, or the organization, institution or other body, other than the University has ceased to function, or for any other circumstances which make it impracticable to fill the vacancy, the vacancy shall be filled in such manner as the Chancellor may direct on the recommendations of the Board.

36. Disputes about membership of Authorities

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a person nominated or appointed to any Authority shall cease to be a member of such Authority as soon as he has ceased to hold the position by virtue of which he was nominated or appointed.

(2) If a question arises as to whether any person is entitled to be a member of any Authority, the matter shall be referred to a committee consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Judge of the High Court of Sindh, who is the member of the Board, and a nominee of the Chancellor, and the decision of the committee shall be final and binding.

37. First Statutes

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the statutes set out in the Schedule, shall be deemed to be the statutes framed under section 25 and shall remain in force until they are amended or replaced by new statutes framed in accordance with this Act.

38. Removal of Difficulties

If any difficulty arises as to the first constitution or reconstitution of any Authority upon coming into force of this Act or otherwise in effect to any provision of this Act, the Chancellor may give appropriate directions to remove such difficulty.

39. Validity of proceedings of Authorities

No act, proceedings, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason only of any vacancy or defect in the constitution of, or in the appointment or nomination of any member of the Authority.

40. Bar of Jurisdiction

No court shall have the jurisdiction to entertain any proceedings, grant any injunction or make any order in relation to anything done in good faith or purported to have been done or intended to be done under this Act.

41. Indemnity

No suit or legal proceedings shall lie against the Government, the University or any Authority or an employee of the Government or the University, or any person, in respect of anything which is done or purported to have been done in good faith or intended to, or has been done in good faith under this Act.
