- (b) forbid such transport altogether.

CHAPTER III PROVISIONS RELATING TO LICENCES

12. (1) An application for the grant of a licence under Chapter-II shall be made to the licensing authority in such form, containing such particulars and accompanied by such fee, as may be prescribed.

Grant of licences.

(2) On receipt of an application, the licensing authority, after conducting the requisite antecedent check, shall, by order in writing, either grant or refuse the licence.

13. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 12, the licensing authority shall refuse to grant -

Refusal of licences.

- (a) a licence under section 3, if it is required for any prohibited arms or prohibited ammunition;
- (b) a licence in any other case under Chapter-II;
- (c) where such licence is required by a person whom the licensing authority has reason to believe –
 - (i) to be prohibited by this Act from acquiring, possessing or carrying arms or ammunition; or
 - (ii) to be of unsound mind; or
 - (iii) to be for any reason, unfit for a licence under this Act; or
- (d) where the applicant is convicted of any offence punishable under the Pakistan Penal Code;
- (e) where the licensing authority deems it necessary for the security of the public peace or safety to refuse to grant such licence;
- (f) where the applicant possesses more than one Computerized National Identification Card or multiple passports.

(2) The licensing authority shall not turn down any application for licence merely on the premise that applicant does not own adequate property.

(3) When the licensing authority refuses to grant a licence to any person, it shall record a reasoned decision in writing for such refusal and communicate to the applicant, the reasons of the same, unless the licensing authority holds that such communication is detrimental to the public interest.

14. (1) A licence under section 3, unless revoked earlier, shall continue to be in force, for a period of one year from the date of its issuance:

Duration and renewal of licence.

Provided that such licence may be granted for a shorter period if the applicant so desires or if the licensing authority, for reasons to be recorded in writing, considers that the licence should be granted for a shorter period.

(2) Every licence shall, unless the licensing authority for cogent reasons to be recorded in writing decides otherwise, be renewable for the same period for which the licence was originally granted and shall be so renewable from time to time.

15. The fees on payment of which, and the form on which a licence shall be granted or renewed, shall be in accordance with the rules as may be prescribed:

16. (1) The licensing authority may, if it deems fit and having recorded a reasoned decision in writing, suspend or revoke a licence for an indefinite period -

Suspension and revocation of

(a) if the licensing authority is satisfied that the holder is prohibited by this Act, from acquiring, possessing or carrying any arms or ammunition, or is of unsound mind, or is for any reason unfit for a licence under this Act; or

(b) if the licensing authority deems it necessary for the security of the public peace or for public safety to suspend or revoke the licence; or

(c) if the licence was obtained by the suppression of material information or on the basis of wrong information provided by the holder of the licence or any other person on his behalf at the time of application; or

(d) if any of the conditions of the licence has been flouted.

(2) The licensing authority may also revoke a licence on the application of the holder himself.

(3) Where the licensing authority makes an order, suspending or revoking a licence, it shall record in writing the reasons and communicate to the holder the same, unless in any case, the licensing authority is of the opinion that it will not be in the public interest to do so.

(4) The authority to whom the licensing authority is subordinate, may, by order in writing, suspend or revoke a licence on any ground on which it may be suspended or revoked by the licensing authority, and the foregoing provisions of this section shall, apply in relation to the suspension or revocation of a licence by such authority.

(5) A court convicting the holder of any offence under this Act or the rules may also suspend or revoke the licence:

Provided that if the conviction is set aside on appeal, the suspension or revocation shall become void.

(6) An order of suspension or revocation under sub-section (5) may also be made by an Appellate Court or by the High Court when exercising its powers of revision.

(7) Government may, by order in the Official Gazette, suspend or revoke or direct any licensing authority to suspend or revoke all or any licence granted under this Act.

(8) On the suspension or revocation of a licence under the section, the holder shall immediately surrender the licence to the authority by whom it has been suspended or revoked or to such other authority as may be specified in the suspension order.

17. A company shall be accountable for the proper use and custody of the arms for which licences have been issued and such arms shall be exclusively engaged for the security of the functionaries, premises and property of the company under the rules so prescribed.
